5. Old Business
  1. What to do with money
    1. Flagpole-Karri looked and could not find one in the right price range that would work. One that would be mounted on the top and shine down was suggested. She will investigate that.
    2. Signage-Laura Larson was in charge of this. She was not present. Issue tabled.
    3. Printer-Lisa Pyykkonen was in charge of this. She was not present. Issue tabled.
    4. Pickleball-A grant committee included this on a recent grant application.
    5. Headphones-Earbuds are not working for lower el and they'd like better headphones. The district will be asked before the club buys.
  2. Fundraiser
    1. Seemed to go well. Do not have numbers in yet. Alexandra Larsen will tally up coffee orders. Otis Spunkmeyer can be sent in. A workbee will be held after the meeting to double check orders and cash.
    2. Scavenger Hunt for those that sold.
      1. Chelsea will buy items after Halloween for the hunt. Give out prizes of $10, $5, and 5 $1s to upper and lower el each. Will do it next Thursday.
      2. Motion by Val to reimburse Chelsea, second by Lori. Motion carried unanimously.
6. New Business
  1. Tadych's Receipts
    1. Chelsea will make a sign for parent teacher conferences that has this on there and welcoming parents to future meetings.
    2. Nikki could post to Facebook, along with a BoxTop video.

7. Principal's Report

1. The Michigan Reads Book is JD & The Great Barber Battle. It could be a good book to pick for March's One School, One Book. Madeline will get a copy and preview it.
8. Next Meeting is November 21st at 3 PM and childcare will be provided for any parent that wants to come with their kids.
9. Chelsea adjourned the meeting at 3:34 P.M.
